Convenient to downtown Pinehurst, downtown Southern Pines, Aberdeen and the area's world- renowned golf courses

Moore County ranks 10th out of 100 North Carolina counties in tourism spending with more than $440 million spent annually as a direct result of tourism. With 44 active golf courses, including world renowned Pinehurst Number 2, golf is a major driver for the tourism industry. Note that behind golf, the most common activities to engage in while traveling to Moore County are dining (87%) and shopping (68%).

A significant portion of the housing stock serves as second homes and is not fully reflected in demographics. More than 50% of the homes in prominent local communities like County Club of North Carolina serve as second homes.
